NEW YORK IN L. 9; CHICAGO IN L. 1.

CHICAGO, May 12.—The Giants took the final game of the series with the Cubs this afternoon. McIntire was driven to shelter and Carson was also pounded hard during the two innings he pitched. Willett was in good form and held the Cubs safely throughout the game.

Larry Doyle was out of the game to-day, having been suspended for three days by President Lynch because of his run in with Umpire Moran in Wednesday's game. The opening inning brought a run for the Giants. As Devore and Fletcher had been retired, Murray walked, stole second and scored when Seymour hit a single through McIntire to centre field.

Devore scored in the second inning. He worked McIntire for a pass and was safe at second when McIntire made a wild throw to second on Merle's grounder. Moyers advanced the pair with an infield out and Willett's long fly to centre scored Devil. The Tigers made three runs in the first, but the Highlanders batted their way to the front and stayed there, the 'gers never scoring after the first. Jim Brown, who had been cleaning them up in the West, was knocked out of the box in the second inning. Three hits and wild pitch prompted Gen. Jennings to set the reserves up at double quick.

Vic President Sherman saw the game, being on a degree only below President Alf. who is in the thirty-third degree lodge. His Vice-Excellency had with him Congressman McKinley of Illinois and Congressman Thomas of Ohio, the latter of whom comes from Harry Stevens' town of Niss. There were no Congressmen from Michigan among those present. They knew better than to come. There was one Detroit voter there. Once he arose and gave thereof yell, which was when Dave Jones made a two-bagger. His standing on the field was lost in the crowd.

The Tigers were lackadaisical ball after being collared. The Highlanders were of their toes and put more heart in their work.

The first Detroit runs in the first inning were . Wilthrop gained four balls up to D. Jones and four more for Bush. Cobb struck and Varsham threw to third, hitting the ball in the third. With three hits and nobody out, Crawford drove a single to right and fished Jones and Bush home. Cobb scored on Jones and Bush home. Two batters hit to bat for forearm.

"Don't take me off," said Warhop to Manager Stallings when the former came in to the bench and couldn't get them out. "I don't want anything else. I've had it in my life." Warhop stayed in and the berets tilted through the next eight innings with no hits and runs.

LaPorte singled in the second and Roach homered in the fourth, but the Highlanders shrank to right center. LaPorte rounded third and key'd on the plate. Bush took Crawford's Brown and by the time he awoke to the fact the LaPorte was trying for a double, he had to give up. Austin tapped back at third, but simultaneous with a double steal by Channel and Austin, Royming made a wild pitch. Channing talked and Austin reached third, while the ball went to Cobb, who was off to Cobb, whose throw was bad.

Warhop opened down a riper from Crawford's at the third and three hits man out, in which Winter sat down to right and a fly through the gates. Channing came in to close for Dave Jones' safety in the fifth and the ball slipped him for a two-base hit. Cobb sacrificed Jones to third, but the ball went to Cobb, who was off to Cobb, whose throw was bad.
